ADVERTISE IN THE DAILY TIMES

20 Per Cent DISCOUNT SALE

On Our Entire Stock of Merchandise

(5 and 10 Cent Counters Excepted)

For 15 Days, Aug. 6 to Aug. 23, Inclusive

On Cash Sales of $1.00 or Over.

It is needless to take space to enumerate our different lines, as our stock is so well known. Suffice to say it is as clean and up-to-date stock of Crockery, fine China, Cut Glass, Common Glassware, Enamelled Ware and House Furnishing Goods as can be found in the State.

This sacrifice is made to reduce stock, as we must have the room for our new stock of imported goods that begin to arrive in September.

Remember 80c buys $1.00 worth at this sale, $10.00 worth costs you only $8.00, $20.00 worth only $16.00. This is certainly worth taking advantage of.

No Rebate Checks Given on Discount Sales

Positively no credit given. All sales strictly cash.

No returns or exchanges will be allowed on sale purchases.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Reynolds and Mr. and Mrs. James J. Goodwin went to Berlin pond this morning to remain over Sunday.

Step in at the new Phoenix cafe, where Spear's restaurant used to be, to-morrow evening and be served to a nice dish of ice cream.

Mrs. T. H. Cave, Jr., returned last night from a month's visit at Old Orchard Beach and at her former home in Waterbury.

Special candy sale at the United Fruit Store. Pretty, large boxes of "Violet" 40c chocolates for 25c. Sixteen big bananas for 25c.

Alvin F. Smith, who is in his 94th year, left this morning for a few days' visit with old friends in Williamstown and Brookfield.

A. W. King, who has been in this city for the past two months in the interests of the New England Telephone company returned to Boston today.

Mrs. Emma Buley, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. George W. Lander, of Summer street, returned to her home in Burlington last night.

At the New England Fruit Store today. Fresh celery, 10c a bunch. Fresh grape fruit, 8c each, two for 15c. Guaranteed coconuts, 7c each. New shipment of muskmelons, 8c each. Nice eating apples, 80c a dozen.

New picture put on at the Bijou today, "Fighting Bob." It is an exciting one, showing the American battleships in action and at rest. The other pictures of the entertainment are up to the usual good standard of the Bijou.

Dreamland has a mighty good show today to present to the many people who are sure to see it. Also the song is better than is generally heard at picture houses. "To the End of the World with You" is written by the same person who wrote "Love Me and the World Is Mine." That is guarantee of the quality of it. William Robertson will sing it to-night and Miss Robertson this afternoon.

The Theatrical has a new picture for to-day, "The Golden Lie," a picture which is interesting and thrilling. There is a conclusion that makes the blood tingle, and is acted in such a convincing way that the audience lives the story with the characters. "The White Chief" is a story full of life and action and the melodramatic features are more than attractive. It is one of those heart stories which appeal by their simplicity and truth to everyday life.

The management of the Comique wishes the public to witness its program for to-day only. We doubt if two such pictures as we are running were ever seen in our theatre at the same time.

"The Slave" is a biography, a most beautiful subject of the Roman type, exceedingly powerful and of high class production that merits the highest praise. The story is strong and is most deftly handled. The acting is distinctly polished and effective. It is unquestionably one of the most beautiful and touching subjects ever produced in motion pictures. "Prince and Pauper" is of equal comparison and extraordinary in many ways. Mark Twain is seen in the first part of the picture. Miss Cecil Spooner, a noted comedienne, takes leading part. It isn't every day the public has an opportunity to see such masterpieces shown together.

People living in the vicinity of Camp Mountain in Middlesex have been disturbed several nights by the cries of some wild animal that old hunters think is a panther. The men in that locality are planning a hunt to bring down the "varmint."

W. H. Jeffries of East Burke, was successfully operated upon at the hospital at Hanover, N. H., last week for the removal of cancerous growth and a speedy recovery is looked for. Mr. Jeffries has been interested in historical publications relating to past legislative bodies.

There will be a regular meeting of Clan Gordon Monday evening, Aug. 16, at seven o'clock. J. Elrick, secretary.

Florida's Seventy Feet Bamboo. Possibly the tallest bamboo in America grows in Arcadia, Fla., and is about seventy feet high. The clump has a spread of fifty feet, and the diameter at the ground is twelve feet. The specimen is only eight years old. This is the common bamboo of India, probably brought to south Florida from the West Indies. In Jamaica it has become naturalized and is popularly supposed to be indigenous. This bamboo makes an astonishing growth during our rainy season, the canes often attaining their full height in six weeks, after which they begin to put on leaves. The canes are from four to five inches in diameter at their base. Unfortunately this species cannot stand low temperatures, and the specimen in Arcadia has frequently been damaged by cold. — Garden Magazine.

Worthy of a Place in History. All St. Petersburg, except the police authorities, is enjoying a good laugh. The objects of their mirth are the daring thieves who added an unheard-of item to the proceedings when the czar inaugurated the monument to Alexander III. Immediately after the ceremony, while over a thousand policemen were keeping the streets clear, a number of workmen, with twenty carts, came along and rolled up and took away 4,000 yards of carpet belonging to the czar. Later on, when inquiries were made, it turned out that the workmen were bogus and that they had got clear away with their booty. A magnificent coup of this kind is worthy of a place in history. — Modern Society.

Learn to Laugh. A good laugh is better than medicine. Learn to tell a story. A well told story is as welcome as a sunbeam in a sickroom. Learn to keep your own troubles to yourself. The world is too busy to care for your ills and sorrows. Learn to do something for others. Even if you are a bedridden invalid there is always something that you can do to make others happier, and that is the surest way to attain happiness for yourself. — Exchange.

His News. "The only news I have to tell you," wrote the Blueville citizen, "is that the river has run an' drowned all yer cattle, an' yer uncle has broke fall; likewise the widder woman you wuz a-goin' ter marry has runned off with a book agent. Outside of these here things, we air all doin' well." — Atlanta Constitution.

Slightly Different. "Ten years ago that fellow borrowed the passage money to come to this country."

"And now he's worth millions, eh?" "No. He seems sort of thrifflish. Ows for his passage money yet." — Louisville Courier-Journal.

The Daylight Store

PRICES WORTH NOTICING

Only a few days more can you get such low prices. Next will be Fall Goods and in order to make the business show a small profit these prices will have to be more. It's to clean the stock that we think it good business to take the following loss.

Garment Department.

A few days later will be just a little too late to get at such money savers as we are now showing in our Garment Department.

We have sold garments before at half price but never had such real good up-to-date garments in Suits and Coats as we are showing today at half price.

It is always a question if the trade fully realize just how much they really save at one of these half price sales.

After closing out these garments we want to say that while the loss is a good sized amount that it puts us in the very best position for Fall and Winter business that we have ever been.

We are going to take care of your Fall wants many times better than ever before. (Just see how we will keep our promise.)

Our new Fall and Winter New Idea Style Books are here, also advance style sheets, these for the asking. New Idea styles are used by leading manufacturers. They must be right.

Last Markdown on Wash Goods.

We have added to our 10c tables the following Wash Goods. These should be taken advantage of at once, if at all.

About 500 yards of Mercerized Taffeta in all colors. Some are short lengths while others are nearly whole piece, a fine cloth for children's dresses or colored waists. This is an 18c cloth, now on our 10c table.

One lot of colored and black and white striped Chiffons now on our 10c tables.

All of our Dimities, Satines and several other 12 1-2c and 15c cloths now on our 10c tables.

These goods are cheap enough to buy for another season's use, and are goods that many use the year through.

Dress Goods.

When you can buy everything in Dress Goods from 50c up from such a stock as ours at a discount on every kind and quality its the time to buy.

There are several cloths in Dress Goods that were advertised this week that do not pay the cost of manufacture and they are not gone by, either.

If you see our 50c plaid in light color for children's dresses now at 25c (half price) you will not understand why we should sell it so cheap.

Silk Dress Patterns, no two alike, are in this sale for this week at a liberal allowance in price.

This is a capital time to buy dresses for the young ladies school wear, as they can have any color that they have in mind.
